Canterbury Festival

Coffee concert in the Spiegelent

“The Spitfire Ground” Old Dover Road, CT1 3NZ
Saturday 25th October 2014 - 11.00 am

Following the choir’s success at the Top Choir Kent competition last year we are honoured to be performing in this year’s Canterbury Festival. Our one hour programme will feature some of our favourite folk songs, madrigals, classics and jazz pieces.

Why not start your weekend with us and make a day of it at the festival, there is plenty going on throughout the day: Accompanied walks (these are popular so worth booking now), comedy performance by Simon Evans, an evening concert by acclaimed choral group ‘Voces 8’ in Canterbury cathedral, performance artists Finding the Silence and much more. Check out canterburyfestival.co.uk for details of programme and box office.

The spitfire ground is a 2 minute drive or 10 minute walk from the centre of town, postcode CT1 3NZ . Tickets are only £5 from the festival box office and will be available on the door. It would be great to see some familiar faces in the audience, you will not be disappointed.

And while we have your attention, another date for your diary is our Gala Christmas choral and brass extravaganza at St Nicholas’ Church on Saturday 13th December at 7.30 pm. Those who remember our Spem in Alium collaboration with His Majestys Sagbutts and Cornets will be delighted to learn that sister brass quintet Mardi Brass will be playing with us. Their new arrangements of well known carols are a treat to look forward to. Tickets £12 as usual at box office 01732 770570, choir members or Sevenoaks Bookshop.
