Concert – 21st March

What better way to celebrate the start of spring than with a concert at the Marlowe? The Dining and Entertainment Committee has made a group booking at the Marlowe Theatre for the debut concert of conductor Lorin Maazel in Canterbury. The programme is Richard Strauss 'Till Eulenspiegel', Mozart's Violin concerto no 3, and Mussorgski's 'Pictures from an Exhibition', arranged by Ravel and played by the Philharmonia Orchestra.

Tickets are £29.50, or £26.50 each for seniors. Please make cheques payable to The Rotary Club of Canterbury.

Book Club

The next meeting of the Book Club will take place on 6th March, at Colin Mckone's. The book under consideration is Stoner by John Williams.

International Service Committee

The International Service Committee has had a successful application for a Rotary District Grant for their Apprentice Training Project in South Sudan. This will help pay for some 15 young men to train as bricklayers and masons. A reminder that Bob Anderson is still collecting second hand tools for a local charity – Tools for Self Reliance – Canterbury who will renovate tools and sent them to countries in Africa where they have a new lease of life.
