

THE ROTARY CLUB OF CANTERBURY
THE FIRST WORLD WAR CENTENARY MESS DINNER
TUESDAY 29th APRIL 2014
THE ABBOTS BARTON HOTEL

YOUR ROTARY CLUB NEEDS
ANECDOTES OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR

The Dining & Entertainment Committee is presenting our next Ladies & Guest Night as a tribute to our forebears in the First World War. The evening will take the form of a Mess Dinner of the 1st Canterbury Rotary Volunteers with a dress code of Black Tie and Decorations or Mess Kit. The price for this 3 course dinner finishing with “passing the port” will be £21. Wine during the dinner is not included.

A memorable evening is being planned:

John Harris is organizing reading of First World War poetry

Sheila Boyd is talking on the effect of the war on women

Robin Hendy is producing an audio-visual montage of the war

Peter Hermitage is overall producer and arranging sketches and songs of the war.

We need your help in giving us a number of very short First World War anecdotes or facts based on your family or local knowledge so that Peter Hermitage can incorporate them into an introduction to the evening.
Please contact Peter with your offerings.

Please book early for this event as soon as it appears on the event management system. Please direct any enquiries to me.

David Barton, Chairman of Dining & Entertainment Committee
