STAMPS FOR HOSPICE

Members often ask me if I still collect used stamps for the Hospice. The answer is "I do", and a number of members regularly give me theirs. The Hospice sells the stamps and makes over £3000 per year. If you can save the stamps, it is very worthwhile, with very little effort on our part.

If you are in business, perhaps you could ask whoever opens the post to save them. Please tear off the top right hand corner of the envelope with the stamp on it and pass to me. Even a few stamps help, and they collect any stamps.

Lord Mayor's Christmas Gift Fund

Sheila Cragg, Chairman of the Lord Mayor's Christmas Gift Fund, would like to thank in advance all those who will be helping with the collections for parcels distributed by the fund, and would remind you of the Open Air Carol Singing in Rose Square, 6.15pm on Christmas Eve with the Archbishop. All welcome.
