Rotary News

International Committee

International is planning a project in memory of Peter Sayer, a loyal and long-standing member of the committee. Imogen has chosen school books for the South Sudan school we support.

The Committee is planning also to support Guildford Eye Charity run by the Rotary Club of Guildford, started in 1998 to offer free operations and treatment to people in the Kolkata region of India who have lost their sight and cannot afford the necessary treatment.

Chairman

Do remember that contributions to the Food Bank are always welcome.
Contact Mark Rosen if you would like to help.

Bob Anderson is still looking for Tools for Africa – this can also include gardening tools, plus dressmaking equipment, such as sewing machines, zips and buttons.
