

The Simon Langton Grammar School for Boys Chamber Choir

The Simon Langton Grammar School for Boys Chamber Choir is an all male, 4-part choir. It is the only auditioned group in the whole school, providing the elite singers with the challenge of sight-reading, rehearsing and performing challenging repertoire.

The singers range from the ages of 11-18 and they thoroughly enjoy making music together. They perform a wide range of music, in many different styles. Rehearsal time is limited to 1 hour per week, due to the students' other commitments within the curriculum.

Recent performances include, singing at the World Organisation for Early Childhood Education's international conference, for Judith Weir CBE (Master of the Queen's Music) and Choral Evensong in Canterbury Cathedral. The music department recently gave a production of The Pirates of Penzance, from which they performed a selection of numbers at Top Choir Kent 2017.

The choir members have also enjoyed performing a wide range of music on their Advent Tour of the Isle of Wight for the past seven years.
