

Rotary Club of Canterbury

Business Meeting minutes

5th June 2018

1. GDPR (Lewis Norris)

- The GDPR forms were issued to members that were present at the meeting with the request that they are signed and returned at the meeting, Completion of these forms are essential for GDPR compliance and also to ensure that we can issue next year's diary/directory. The Directory will have to exclude Members addresses.
- LN will also issue a separate form for those Members who retain Rotary data. If Members retain such data they must have the permission of the data owners to use such data.

2. Millennium Scholarship Fund (Neil Fraser)

- The Motion to enlarge the Trustees to include the Administrator, President Elect, Immediate Past President and 2 Members of the Club was presented, having been issued on 22 May 2018. The 2 Members nominated were Graham Bough (nominated by Martin Ward and seconded by Lewis Norris) and Roger Power (nominated by Mike Talbot and seconded by Bob Anderson).
- The Motion was voted on by the 40 Members present and was passed by 40 Members. In addition there were 2 Members (Robert Boyd-Howell and Brian Dobinson) who cast their yes votes by e mail (RBH) and by post (BD).
- A meeting of the new set of Trustees will be held shortly and report back to the Club.
