4. Updates on CSC target charities

- a. St Nicholas School. Sidney reported that St Nicholas School had asked for support for trip to Raindeerland land in December – agreed £200. Sidney to confirm that trip went ahead before cheque requested.

- b. PWYC – Richard noted that the concert that he and Cora had held raised £320, which will be donated to PoWYC. Money to go via CSC account to generate gift aid.

RKC requested funding for the PoWYC Xmas children's activities, and it was agreed to donate the budgeted £400.

- c. RYLA – In John's absence Maxine reported that two candidates had been identified from Stelling Minnis. They will be interviewed shortly, so £400 fees will be needed for April weekend.
- d. Foodbank – Richard noted that the Club were looking to make £500 donation from excess funds of MSTF. Committee agreed to hold budgeted £500 in abeyance for future use.

5. Ad hoc requests

- a. Pilgrims Way Primary – Afghan Evacuee Children Project
MB reported request to help fund Panto Visit. MB noted that International Committee had also offered £250. A donation of £250 was agreed.

MB also noted the PE Tony was looking at funding for future projects from Club funds and the P Stephen was interested in working with FoB RC to help provide additional funds for the school.

- b. Rising Sun children's groups
Richard requested a donation to help with the Xmas activities for the children. A donation of £200 agreed

- c. Bridge Playgroup – request received for play mats. Richard to review letter. This request was declined.
